

Installation and deployment process for CAST Imaging

Learn about the deployment of CAST Imaging. This includes understanding what you need to prepare, the installation process and updating/upgrading to new releases.

Prerequisites

To successfully deploy CAST Imaging in your organization, it is important to understand:

- the different ways that it can be deployed
 - hardware sizing
 - the software requirements
-

Installation process

Find out where you can get the installation media for all required packages. All steps in the installation process are then described in full:

- CAST Imaging
 - AIP Core
 - CAST Storage Service/PostgreSQL
 - AIP Console
 - CAST Extend Offline/Proxy
-

Upgrade process

Information about how to upgrade to a new release. The following components/packages can all be upgraded independently:

- AIP Console package (including "embedded" Dashboards), AIP Node package and deployed RestAPI war file
 - AIP Core analysis engine on target AIP Nodes
 - Applications to new AIP Core release (schema upgrade)
 - CAST Imaging
-

Uninstall process

Learn how to uninstall your CAST Imaging instance and completely remove all data.
