

Application - Transactions - Overview

The Overview panel shows information about:

- the total number of Transactions identified in the Application during the analysis (a snapshot is not required).
- the number of complete/incomplete Transactions - the number of complete and incomplete Transactions will equal the total number of Transactions.

Click to enlarge

i A Transaction is deemed to be incomplete when it does not reach an end-point or a data entity. These incomplete Transactions are "empty Transactional Functions" with a Function Point value of 0.